Consent to Share Private Information

Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a school is required to provide certain privacy protections for those education records that it maintains. This includes identifying whether or not a child receives special education services.

Date: _____

Student: _____

Your child's teacher, _____, would like to use online technology to hold interactive sessions with students during distance learning.

District provided student emails include a student's first and last name. Your child's full name may be exposed to other families while logged on to an interactive virtual format such as Google Classroom. For classes that educate students receiving special education services only, other families may be able to identify that your child receives special education services.

Please check the appropriate box below:

I GIVE permission for my child to participate in an online interactive educational session provided by Special Education Staff during distance learning. I understand that other families/students participating in this interactive session may identify that my child receives special education by participating in an online interactive session for educational purposes provided by special education staff. Names or any other identifying information regarding students, teachers, and staff may not be recorded, shared or discussed. Participation in any discussions or dissemination of confidential information or observed interactions between other students or other students and staff in the virtual classroom is prohibited.

I DO NOT give permission for my child to participate in an online interactive educational session provided by Special Education Staff during distance learning. I understand that my teacher will provide an alternative learning assignment.
