

CERTIFICATE

of Continuing Education

Event: Practical Strategies to Address Executive Function Disorder and Social Skills, Rebecca Moyes, M.Ed. bmoys123@aol.com

What are Executive Functions? Deficits & Interesting Facts,
Effects of Trauma, Co-morbid disorders, Symptoms of Emotional Disturbance

Part II Academic Concerns:

- Written Expression Assignments, Reading Comprehension, and Math
- Strengths of kids with EF Dysfunction
Motivation Intrinsic & Extrinsic
Token Economy
Teaching Organization
Apps: 30/30 StayonTask, Popplet, Evernote, Flashcards Deluxe
Organization, Routines
Homework – no more than 20 minutes per night
Transitions, Perseveration, ODD vs. Inflexibility
Memory – Memory Deficits, Strategies to Improve Working Memory
Learning Styles – Auditory, Visual, Kinesthetic, Tactile
Tips for Older Students to stay on task

Part III Strategies for Teaching Social Replacement Skills

Social Skills to Teach

- Teaching Anger and Stress Management
- Peer Mediated Instruction
- EF Deficits: Lack of Inhibitions/Bluntness, Theory of Mind,
Predicting Consequences of One's Actions
- Use of Video Modeling to Teach Replacement Social Skills
- Social Stories and Personal Space

Shooting Star Event Center

Date: October 4, 2017

Number of Hours: 6

Brenda Ackerson, RLIF, Region 1 & 2

Sponsored by:

Region 1 & 2 Directors
Association, Low Incidence